FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's Gospel, Jesus sends out seventy disciples on mission. He urges them, as they announce that the Kingdom of God is at hand, to bring a message of peace. Today too, as modern-day disciples of the Lord Jesus, we are sent forth from each Eucharistic celebration into the world to announce the Kingdom of God and to bring a message of peace. This is our baptismal call. Armed with faith, trust and our experience of the Lord Jesus, we are called to proclaim with our lives the reign of God and so build up the Body of Christ.

Parish Office: The Parish Council have decided to move forward with a significant reduction in office hours. The new hours are Mon., Thurs., and Friday 9am to 2pm. During these hours the secretary will be focusing on Parish related business only. This decision has been made in an effort to reduce the monthly deficit. We apologize for any inconveniences. We thank you in advance for your patience and understanding, as we grow accustomed to this new model. Any questions or concerns please feel free to call the office at 538-3106, Teresa Harding or Father Patrick will be available and/or please leave a message.

WELCOME TO ST. IGNATIUS PARISH AND ST. ANNE'S CHURCH:

We are glad that you are here with us this morning. It is our hope that you experience the love of Christ this morning and His presence during our worship.

"Where two or three come together in my name, there I am with them"

Matt 18:20

Condolences: The parishioners of St. Ignatius Parish extend to the family of the late Anthony McNeil their profound sympathies. We join you in prayer for the repose of your loved one. May God bless you and console you.

Holy Communion at home: If you or someone you know who would like to receive Holy Communion in their home, you are asked to please inform Father Patrick 280-4904, or telephone the Parish office 538-3106. The Body of Christ is often such an important part of people's lives, so when they are sick or unable to attend Mass, I would gladly bring them Holy Communion..... Father Patrick Osuji

Provost Recruitment

Queen's College Faculty of Theology is looking for an individual with experience and achievements as a leader and theological educator to join our team and community as Provost / Chief Executive Officer. We want our Provost to be a leader who inspires, motivates, consults, and collaborates. The Provost must have appreciation and regard for Queen's College history and nurture continuous growth and improvement by thinking outside the box and seeing the big picture.

An information package, including more information about Queen's College and the Provost Position Description, is available at:
