

FEBRUARY 2 - WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE: Today is also the “World Day for Consecrated Life”. The purpose of this day is “to help the entire Church to esteem ever more greatly the witness of those persons who have chosen to follow Christ by means of the practice of the evangelical counsels”, as well as “to be a suitable occasion for consecrated persons to renew their commitment and rekindle the fervour which should inspire their offering of themselves to the Lord” (Pope John Paul II, 1997).

February 3 - Memorial of Saint Blaise, Bishop, Martyr: According to legend, Blaise performed a miraculous cure on a boy who was choking to death and so has long been associated with cures for afflictions of the throat. During the persecution of Licinius in the early fourth century, Blaise, who was an Armenian Bishop, suffered martyrdom. He is the patron of wild animals, wool-combers and of all who suffer from afflictions of the throat.

February 3 - Memorial of Saint Ansgar, Bishop: Ansgar, who was born near Amiens about 801, was later sent to study at a nearby monastery and became a monk in order to preach to the pagans. He had an extraordinary talent for preaching and converted many to the Christian faith. Known as the Apostle of the North, he died in 865, greatly venerated for his charity and sanctity. Ansgar is a patron of Denmark, Germany, and Iceland.

FEBRUARY 5 - MEMORIAL OF SAINT AGATHA, VIRGIN, MARTYR: It is alleged that Agatha was sent to a brothel to force her to give up her faith. After she was tortured, the Apostle Peter is supposed to have appeared and cured her. However, as a result of new cruelties, she died in prison the following day. Her intervention was credited with stilling the eruption of Mount Etna the year after her burial. She died during the time of the Decian persecution (249-251) and is considered a patron of miners, alpine guides, and nurses.

FEBRUARY 6 - MEMORIAL OF SAINT PAUL MIKI AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS: Paul Miki joined the Jesuits in 1580. On February 6, 1597, he and 25 companions – clergy and lay – died for their faith in Nagasaki, Japan. They were suspended on crosses and killed with spears thrust through the heart. Their persecution was triggered by a nationalist fear of foreigners; for almost the next 200 years, Japan would be closed to the rest of the world. Despite this isolation, the faith survived without any Priests and with only the Sacrament of Baptism. Paul Miki and his companions were canonized in 1862.

THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

Today's feast honours both Our Lord and the Blessed Virgin. It commemorates the presentation of Jesus in the temple as well as Mary's purification as she re-enters the temple to present her Son to God. The observance of this feast began in fourth century Jerusalem. In the Middle Ages, a tradition began of blessing candles and holding a procession of light on this day. As a result, this feast is also known as “Candlemas”, Christ our light has come to us. The Gospel presents this epiphany to us as Jesus is revealed as “a light of revelation to the Gentiles”. The challenge for us, as we welcome the light of Christ into our hearts and lives, is to become bright beacons in our world, radiating the warmth of Christ's light to everyone we meet.
