

AUGUST 8 - MEMORIAL OF SAINT DOMINIC, PRIEST: Dominic founded the Order of Preachers (Dominicans) in 1216. Priests of this Order were highly educated and could be sent where the need was greatest, fighting heresy and preaching the importance of the Sacraments. Dominic died in 1221, was canonized in 1234, and is a patron saint of the Dominican Republic (named after the Latin word for Sunday), astronomers, scientists, and falsely accused persons.

AUGUST 10 - FEAST OF SAINT LAWRENCE, DEACON, MARTYR: Lawrence suffered martyrdom in 258. A defender of the Church in Rome, he was one of the most venerated Roman martyrs of the early Church and is a patron of Rome. He is mentioned in the Canon of the Mass (Eucharistic Prayer I).

AUGUST 11 - MEMORIAL OF SAINT CLARE, VIRGIN: At the age of 18, Clare heard a sermon by Francis of Assisi and committed herself to a life of Gospel poverty. At age 19 she received the religious habit and at age 22 she was made Abbess of the Poor Clares who modeled their life on the ideals of St. Francis, thus practising radical poverty. Greatly respected as a “new leader of women”, Clare received papal approval for her own Rule the day before she died — the first Rule for religious life, written by a woman for women. Credited with many miracles, she was canonized two years after her death.

August 12 - Memorial of Saint Jane Frances de Chantal, Religious: Jane Frances Frémiot was born in France in 1572. She married Baron de Chantal and gave birth to six children. In 1601, her husband died and Jane Frances, after overcoming her initial depression, sought the spiritual dimension of her suffering. With her spiritual advisor, Francis de Sales, she founded the Congregation of the Visitation for women who wished to live a religious life but could not endure the austerity of the existing religious orders. Committed to working with the sick and the poor, Jane Frances died in 1641, having established about 85 monasteries.

August 13 - Memorial of Saint Pontian, Pope, and Saint Hippolytus, Priest, Martyrs: During a period of persecution, both Pontian, who had succeeded Pope Urban I in 230, and Hippolytus, who was a priest, a well-known scholar and theologian, were exiled to the unhealthy mines of Sardinia. It was there that they met each other. Hippolytus had rebelled against the Church, but was reconciled through the efforts of Pontian. Hippolytus wrote many works, including a prayer on which our Eucharistic Prayer II is based. Both Pontian and Hippolytus died a martyr's death.

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's readings sing the praises of our ancestors in faith. Our forebears, we are told, trusted in God's promises. In the Gospel Jesus reminds his disciples to put their faith in him for, he says, "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also". This week we too are called to a deeper faith. As pilgrims on this earth, we are encouraged to remain alert and watchful to welcome the Lord who "is coming at an unexpected hour", inviting us to the wedding feast in our eternal homeland, the heavenly one that our forebears saw from afar, and which we begin to taste in each Eucharist.
