

JULY 29 - MEMORIAL OF SAINT MARTHA, DISCIPLE OF THE LORD:

Martha was the sister of Mary and Lazarus, and all three were friends of Jesus. They lived in Bethany, three kilometres from Jerusalem. It was Martha who received Jesus into her house and served the guests while her sister Mary sat at the Lord's feet, listening to his teaching. Martha is a model of hospitality as well as of fidelity in discipleship. She is the patroness of housewives and of waiters and waitresses.

July 30 - Saint Peter Chrysologus, Bishop, Doctor: Peter was born in Italy around 406 and became Archbishop about 439. When he arrived in his diocese, he found a strong pagan influence and many lapsed faithful. Through his labours, paganism was eradicated and the faith revived. He was a concerned pastor and preacher and earned the title 'Chrysologus' meaning 'of golden words' because of his inspirational homilies. He died around 450 and was made a Doctor of the Church in 1729.

August 2 - Memorial of Saint Eusebius of Vercelli, Bishop: Born in Sardinia in the year 283, Eusebius became the first bishop in Vercelli, Italy. Along with St. Athanasius, he affirmed the divinity of Christ against the Arian heresy which denied it. As a result of his defence of Christ's divinity, Eusebius was banished to Palestine. However, in 361 he was able to return to his diocese in Vercelli where he died in 371.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's First Reading and Gospel are united in that they both teach us the importance of perseverance in prayer. To 'persevere' means to be persistent in our efforts to obtain what we need. Our prayer life is a reflection of our faith in God and our relationship with the Lord Jesus. If we think of God as a loving friend or a kind caring parent, one who will enter into our human need and meet us there, prayer will come a little easier. Then we will be able to utter with conviction the words of today's psalm, "On the day I called, O Lord, you answered me".

WELCOME TO ST. IGNATIUS PARISH AND ST. ANNE'S CHURCH :

We are glad that you are here with us this morning. It is our hope that you experience the love of Christ this morning and His presence during our worship.

"Where two or three come together in my name, there I am with them"

Matt 18:20

Cemetery Mass: August 8, 2019 @ 7p.m. (weather permitting)

Holy Communion at home: If you or someone you know who would like to receive Holy Communion in their home, you are asked to please inform Father Patrick 280-4904, or telephone the Parish office 538-3106. The Body of Christ is often such an important part of people's lives, so when they are sick or unable to attend Mass, I would gladly bring them Holy Communion..... Father Patrick Osuji

If any parishioner has school yearbooks for the Roman Catholic Schools which they are willing to donate to the Diocesan Archives, we would be pleased to accept them as it is part of our educational history which we need represented in our Archival Collection. They can be brought to your local parish office who will arrange to send them to the Archives. If you have any questions, please contact Denise Howse at 709-489-4019

Provost Recruitment

Queen's College Faculty of Theology is looking for an individual with experience and achievements as a leader and theological educator to join our team and community as Provost / Chief Executive Officer. We want our Provost to be a leader who inspires, motivates, consults, and collaborates. The Provost must have appreciation and regard for Queen's College history and nurture continuous growth and improvement by thinking outside the box and seeing the big picture. An information package, including more information about Queen's College and the Provost Position Description, is available at:
