

ST. IGNATIUS PARISH

There is a new order of SISTERS in our diocese! The diocese of Grand Falls has received a great blessing. Four religious Sisters from Africa have come to live and work among us. These four sisters have come to help form people as catechists in each parish. These sisters are called VOCATIONIST SISTERS, from the same Order as the VOCATIONIST PRIESTS who are working in the diocese.

VOCATIONIST Sisters work in more than a dozen countries around the world. Here, in the diocese of Grand Falls, their Ministry will be to train adults to become, as Pope Francis calls them, CATECHISTS. Every Parish has been offered the opportunity to invite two or four of the sisters to come and talk at weekend masses to encourage women and men to become catechists.

But these Sisters need your help. Each of them has taken vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience. Because of their vow of poverty, they've come here to Newfoundland with very little in the way of material possessions, including money.

Bishop Daniels and the priests are asking everyone to help support the sisters. We know that many people in our province are struggling to make ends meet, but if you have a little, please do your best to help. If you are well off, please try to be as generous as you can. The sisters can bring new life to our Parish communities, but they will need your help to bring spiritual blessings to our churches and our homes. God bless you. And God bless the work of these new Sisters, who have come as angels among us.

Offerings for the Sisters may be sent to St. Patrick's Parish, Carbonear. Please make sure the offering is designated for the SISTERS. The superior of the Vocationists in Newfoundland, Father Anthony, will ensure that tax receipts are issued.

SECOND SUDAY OF EASTER

Today, as we celebrate the Octave Day of Easter, we draw comfort from Jesus' words "Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe". We rejoice in our faith which has been passed down to us through a community of believers – those who walked with Jesus after his resurrection and went on to witness to him throughout the world, passing on the faith from one generation to another. As part of a living legacy, we too are called to pass on the faith so that others will come to know Jesus and have hope in the resurrection.
