

SEPTEMBER 16 - MEMORIAL OF SAINT CORNELIUS, POPE, AND SAINT CYPRIAN, BISHOP,

MARTYRS: Saints Cornelius and Cyprian were friends and allies. Cornelius was elected Pope during the Decian persecution (250-251). In 253, under renewed persecution, he was arrested and banished. He died in exile the same year. Cyprian of Carthage was a convert to Christianity and became a Priest shortly after his conversion. In 249, he became a Bishop. When the Decian persecution began, he went into hiding and supported his flock by letter. Later he was arrested, banished, and condemned to death, showing great faith and courage in the face of martyrdom.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's readings, we see the love, mercy, grace and compassion of God at work in the lives of the Israelites, Saint Paul, and the Prodigal Son, and we realize that such goodness is also at work in our own lives. How encouraging this is! We are no different than the people in today's readings. In our weakness, we often fail to measure up as disciples of the Lord Jesus. We make rash judgments, we fail to persevere in prayer, we act uncharitably towards others – in short, we are always in need of forgiveness. This week let us take time to become more aware of the importance of forgiveness, rejoicing always in the unlimited love and mercy of our God.
