

September 24 - Memorial of Blessed Émilie Tavernier-Gamelin,

Religious: Émilie Tavernier was born in Montreal in 1800. By the age of 28, she had endured the death of her husband and three children, drawing her closer to Mary, our Lady of Sorrows. Émilie then devoted her life to the poor, sick, orphaned and imprisoned, setting up Houses of Providence for their care. With the blessing of Bishop Bourget, she founded the Sisters of Providence in 1843 and became their Superior in 1844. As she lay dying in 1851, her last words were “humility, simplicity, charity, but above all charity”. Émilie Tavernier-Gamelin was beatified in 2001.

2019 Collection for the Needs of the Church in Canada

As his term as President of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) draws to a close, Bishop Lionel Gendron, P.S.S., Bishop of Saint-Jean-Longueuil, expresses his sincere appreciation for the breadth and abundance of work accomplished by dioceses/eparchies, regional episcopal assemblies, and the CCCB as a national conference. Support of this annual collection for the country's Bishops “will help us achieve our goals, and to proclaim the Good News in Canada.”

The Collection for the Needs of the Church in Canada will take place 28 and 29 September 2019. This annual charitable initiative assists the Bishops in their ministry of accompanying, teaching, guiding, sanctifying and caring for the Church in Canada.

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today we are called to be fair and just stewards as we give ourselves in service to the Lord, and once again we are challenged also to free ourselves of any obstacles that might get in the way. In the Gospel story, wealth is the obstacle. The important point to keep in mind as Christ's disciples is that we must be so detached from material goods that the presence or absence of wealth becomes insignificant. How we use what we have is the significant factor. We need to use our gifts - wealth or otherwise – to serve God and to reach out to those in need.

WELCOME TO ST. IGNATIUS PARISH AND ST. ANNE'S CHURCH :

We are glad that you are here with us this morning. It is our hope that you experience the love of Christ this morning and His presence during our worship.

"Where two or three come together in my name, there I am with them"
Matt 18:20

Holy Communion at home: If you or someone you know who would like to receive Holy Communion in their home, you are asked to please inform Father Patrick 280-4904, or telephone the Parish office 538-3106. The Body of Christ is often such an important part of people's lives, so when they are sick or unable to attend Mass, I would gladly bring them Holy Communion..... Father Patrick Osuji

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament: On the first Friday of each month, there will be an exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at the Parish Chapel at 10:30 am. Mass to follow at 11:00 am. The dates are Aug 2nd, Sept 6th, Oct 4th, Nov 1st, and Dec 6th
