DIOCESE OF GRAND FALLS

June 17, 2021

TO PRIESTS, RELIGIOUS AND LAY FAITHFUL DIOCESE OF GRAND FALLS

Dear Friends,

Today I am announcing to you that Father Patrick OSUJI has been Incardinated into the Diocese of Grand Falls.

I would first like to thank Fr. Patrick for his willingness to permanently join the Presbyterate of the Diocese. I know that his decision was made only after a period of discerning God's will in his life and after a positive experience of ministry in the Diocese of Grand Falls. While 'on loan' to us from the Diocese of Okigwe, Fr. Patrick has been a good and faithful priest and now he has chosen to make the Diocese of Grand Falls his home. Welcome, Fr. Patrick!

I also wish to thank the Most Rev. Solomon A. Amatu for releasing Fr. Patrick from the Diocese of Okigwe; making it possible for him to become of priest of this Diocese.

Finally, I wish to thank the Priests, Religious and people of this Diocese who have welcomed Fr. Patrick to our Diocese and helped to make him feel welcomed, appreciated and 'at home' here. I know that I can count on you to make all priests from away, and who have chosen to minister in our Diocese, 'at home'

I remain,

Yours in Christ
